

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Horace Quimby has 60 years of experience as a firefighter in Pierre, and Richard "Bud" Gould has 40 years of experience as a firefighter in Ft. Pierre; and,

WHEREAS, The combined total of these two men's firefighting experience is 100 years of devoted service; and,

WHEREAS, Horace Quimby has served as a member of the Pierre Hook and Ladder Company #1 since 1942, and is still an active contributor on the fireground. Also, Horace helped start the Pierre Fire Department Rescue Squad in 1945 and is still an active member; and,

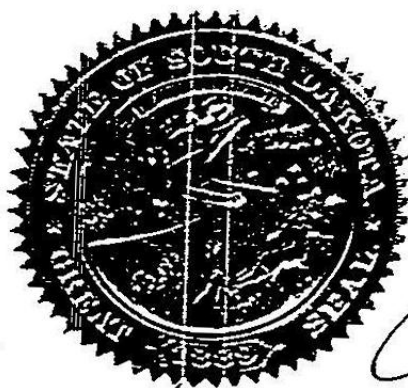

WHEREAS, Bud Gould was the main force behind building the Ft. Pierre Fire Hall. For the last ten years, Bud has served as fire chief, was a member of the Tri-County Search and Rescue Squad, and is still an active firefighter who contributes to the Ft. Pierre Fire Department; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota is celebrating 100 years of statehood, and it is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of the combined 100 years of dedicated service by these two firefighters:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 8, 1989, as
